

Women Who Run With Wolves

Workshops

La Llorona – Clear Water - Nourishing the Creative Life

Sunday 11th October 2015

6 hrs CPD per workshop

This workshop is designed for women to connect with their soul's journey.

The ancient stories we use come from the book Women Who Run with the Wolves by Clarissa Pinkola Estes. They invite us to use our intuition to connect to a place of healing, through story-telling, sharing, ritual, movement and creative materials to open ourselves to the deep wisdom of the body and to listen to the soul's call.

An open invitation to women with a willingness and desire to connect. You do not need any prior experience. There will be a maximum of 15 women.

In these workshops it is our intention to create a safe, sacred space in which we can connect as a community of women to share our feminine nature and spirit to guide our selves back home.
